We are the group of Pre and primary education. On that day 30.11.2023 we are plan to organize a programme about educational awareness on primary school Thoppupatti. The people organisation team will help us to successfully organize the programme.

We informed the school HM and invited chief guest as professor Inigo popu vinothan and then completed the pre preparation on that programmes. On that day we went to the school at morning. Then assemble the students by the permission of school H M and the teachers of the primary school, Thoppupatti.

After the completion of the first part then we start projecting the dramas, speeches, and cartoons about the educational awareness and to teach about the importance of education and the life's thoughts. After completing the programme all the students teachers and HM are very happy and well motivated as to change her own life style. Many of the students say about her dream education as IAS, Doctors etc. We feel that the programme is very helpful and useful to all that students.

The photos of projecting the inspirational and dramatical programmes are as follows.

Then we leave from the village. THANK YOU

EXTENSION DEPARTMENT – SHEPHERD

DESCRIPTION OF CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

INTRODUCTION

Spreading of joy and happiness of our II B.A. ECONOMICS students begins with journey of 45mins to our adopted village KALKULATHUPATTI on September 5th afternoon around 2:30P.M.

AIM:

To extend our service attitude in the way of celebration and spread the reason of joy and happiness.

PREPARATION FOR CELEBRATION

Safe reach, we began to make the atmosphere brighter decorations were made by our students around the church. Christmas which explores the birth of Jesus we create around a small crib with lightings which made the atmosphere more chilly. We archive the ultimate goal by inviting the village people by small groups of our students and gathered in the church around 5:00 P.M.

CHRISTMAS DAY CLEBRATON

Every step of matters begins with word of God, the celebration start over with prayer song sung by our students. For this celebration of joy it centred with two core chief guest Fr. MICHAEL JOE and sister Sr. VIMALA GRACY with the warm inspiring welcome speech about their passed mile stone. Spreading of happiness through music which influenced the minds and hearts in the form of carols, our students did it to it extend. Birthday begins with cakes and candles, we made this celebration to the core, our chief guest cut the Christmas cake with enlighten surrounding. Followed by energetic dance of our boys and girls which makes it to pop rock of the day.

We enrich our knowledge about Christmas and santa claus who represent as father of Christmas. Father explores the concept of Christmas with its historical background and favourite great grandpa of all children Santa callus

SPREADING OF LOVE

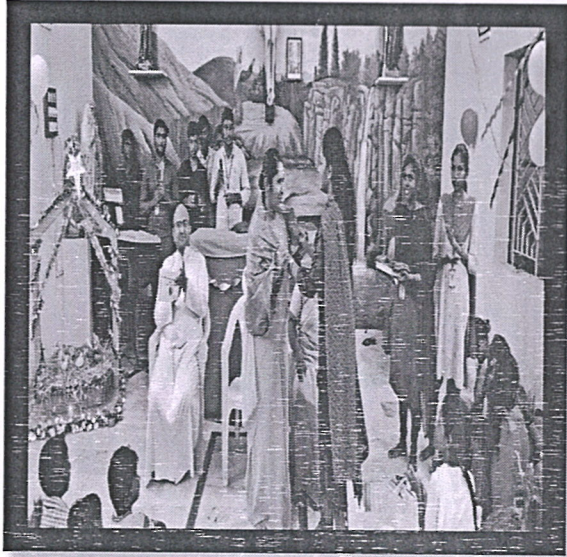

We convey the message of Christmas by action of distributing the cakes to the village people. Through our modern Santa callus, he shared chocolates to the kids and fill the joy in their hearts.

CONCLUSION

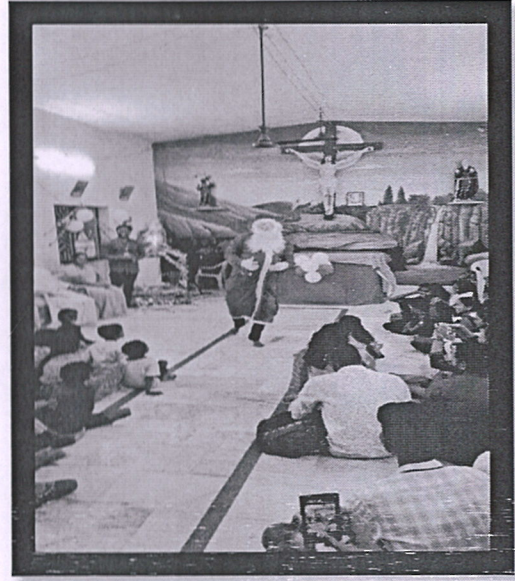

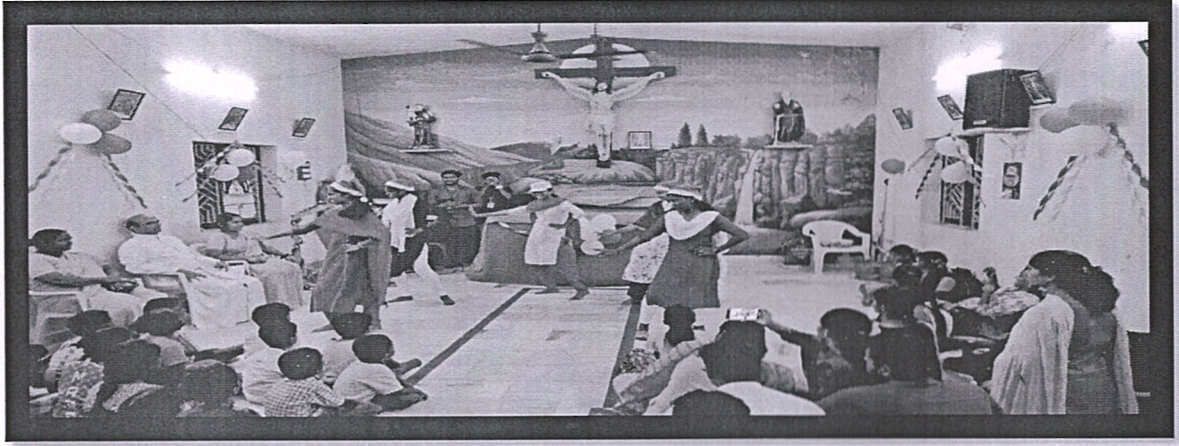

We ended the function with our gratitude of thanks giving by our class member Rajeshwari with her words of gratitude. We made fill the hearts of the villagers and by them our hearts also filled the same and at 7:30 P.M we return from the village.

Thank you

The awareness was given by Mr. George nelson. Then we planted some tree sampling in the school and temple, then we collected the data of village people. Our team return the village at 2:30pm.

SHEPHERD REPORT

INTRODUCTION:

World Environmental Protection Day serves as a global reminder of the critical importance of safeguarding our planet. It calls for collective action to address environmental challenges, promote sustainability, and preserve the Earth for future generations. This day encourages awareness, responsibility, and initiatives that contribute to a healthier and more sustainable world. World Environmental Protection Day, observed on [date], aims to raise awareness about pressing environmental issues and inspire individuals, communities, and governments to take proactive measures. It emphasizes the need for sustainable practices, conservation of natural resources, and the mitigation of environmental threats such as pollution and climate change. The day serves as a platform for education, advocacy, and collaborative efforts to ensure a cleaner, greener, and healthier planet. Activities often include tree plantations, clean-up campaigns, and discussions on sustainable development.

AIM:

The primary aim of World Environmental Protection Day is to raise awareness and foster a global commitment to safeguarding the environment. It seeks to:

1. Promote Awareness: Increase understanding of environmental issues and their impact on ecosystems, biodiversity, and human well-being.
2. Encourage Action: Motivate individuals, communities, businesses, and governments to take concrete actions toward environmental conservation and sustainable practices.

3. Advocate Responsibility: Emphasize the importance of individual and collective responsibility in preserving natural resources and reducing environmental degradation.

4. Facilitate Collaboration: Encourage international cooperation and collaboration to address global environmental challenges through shared knowledge, resources, and initiatives.

5. Inspire Sustainable Practices: Promote the adoption of sustainable lifestyles, consumption patterns, and development practices that minimize harm to the environment.

Ultimately, the goal is to create a collective consciousness that values and actively contributes to the protection and preservation of our planet.

OBJECTIVE:

The objectives of an Environment Protection Day include:

1. Educational Outreach: Raise awareness about environmental issues, their causes, and potential solutions through educational programs, workshops, and awareness campaigns.

2. Policy Advocacy: Advocate for stronger environmental policies and regulations at local, national, and international levels to address pressing environmental challenges.

3. Community Engagement: Encourage active participation and involvement of communities in environmental protection activities, fostering a sense of responsibility and stewardship.

4. Conservation Initiatives: Promote and participate in conservation projects such as tree planting, habitat restoration, and wildlife protection to contribute directly to environmental preservation.

5. Waste Reduction and Recycling: Emphasize the importance of waste reduction, recycling, and proper waste disposal practices to minimize the environmental impact of waste.

6. Promotion of Sustainable Practices: Encourage the adoption of sustainable practices in daily life, including energy efficiency, water conservation, and eco-friendly alternatives.

7. Global Cooperation: Facilitate international cooperation and collaboration among countries, organizations, and individuals to tackle global environmental issues collectively.

8. Monitoring and Reporting: Encourage monitoring of environmental indicators and reporting on progress towards sustainability goals, fostering transparency and accountability.

9. Research and Innovation: Support and promote research initiatives focused on environmental issues, fostering innovation in technologies and practices that contribute to environmental protection.

Long-term Behaviour Change: Strive for lasting behaviour change by promoting a deeper understanding of the interconnectedness of human activities and the environment, aiming for a sustainable and resilient future.

Conclusion:

Environment Protection Day underscores the critical importance of preserving our planet for a sustainable future. It calls for unity in adopting eco-friendly practices, promoting biodiversity, and combating climate change. As we commemorate this day, let it inspire ongoing efforts to nurture and protect the environment, recognizing that each individual action contributes to the collective well-being of Earth.

To sum up, Environment Protection Day serves as a catalyst for heightened awareness and action toward environmental stewardship. The significance lies not only in a single day of observance but in the lasting impact we create through continuous commitment. Let our shared responsibility for the environment be a daily pledge, driving us to innovate, conserve, and advocate for a harmonious coexistence with nature. Together, we can forge a sustainable path forward for the well-being of our planet and generations to come.

Conclusion

Our visit to Aalampatti was not only a memorable experience but also remainder of the Patriotism towards lives. By Organizing the Independence Day Celebration to the rural children, We the Social Organization group has took a small step towards nurturing a brighter future for them, Towards Patriotism.

Introduction

On a bright Tuesday morning on 15th August 2023 our Our Social Organization group of 10 students of II-BCA A., has embarked on a meaningful visit to the village of Aalampattii. Our primary intention was to celebrate INDEPENDENCE DAY along with the Students,staffs,and village people.

Objective

The Main objective of our visit was to enhance the patriotism to the children in Aalampatti village by equipping them with the celebration of Independence day 2023.

Activities Carried Out

We the group of 10 students has Organized the people,staffs along with the rural children. Since that day was Non-working day for the school, We by ourselves organized the Celebration,with the help of the Headmistress of the school Mrs.Baby Rose Mary, She felicitated the event and We Invited the Panchayat president of the village Mr.Lawrence to Hoist the National flag and to give his presidential address,and to Distribute the Prizes for the children who won the prizes for the games conducted by us on the previous visit.

Outcome

Our efforts bore fruit as we witnessed the joy and gratitude in the eyes of children. Equipped with new National spirit, they expressed their eagerness towards the patriotism by the Independence day celebration and Listening to the presidential address by the Panchayat President...

Learnings

Through this experience, we learned the value of community engagement and the importance of collective efforts in making difference. We also came to know the patriotic levels of the rural children by Organizing the celebration with them.

Conclusion

Our visit to Aalampatti was not only a memorable experience but also remainder of the Patriotism towards lives. By Organizing the Independence Day Celebration to the rural children, We the Social Organization group has took a small step towards nurturing a brighter future for them,TowardsPatriotism.

OBJECTIVE

The main objective of our visit is to celebrate the Christmas with the students as well as the village people. So, we have done some art in the school board and done some craft with the chart and given to the children of the village. And then made them to understand about what we are going to do for forth coming days with art and craft.

OUTCOME

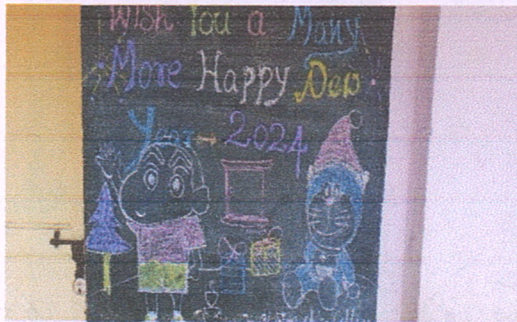

This type of the efforts which are made though our hands will won't be forgettable and it will be stored in your finger-tips. This made the students surprisingly happy in their heart and mind.

LEARNINGS

Through this experience we come to know about the student what they needed in with this art and craft. And we are capable of managing those students.

CONCLUSION

Our visit to Aalampatti was not only a memorable experience, through the celebration of Christmas festival, the thing is what we made to the students which is not the art and craft i.e., we are helping them to learn many good things too.

Introduction

On a bright Thursday morning on 11th January 2024. Our Social Organization group and Environmental group of 18 students from II-BCA A., has embarked on a meaningful visit to the village of Aalampattii. The members two group organised a Pongal celebration on the school campus

Objective

The Main objective of our visit was to celebrate Pongal festival with the students as well as the faculty. We organised the event and prepared the sweetest Pongal with the school staff and distributed the Pongal to the kids and the faculty of the school and some aged people. We conducted the games like lucky corner, musical chair, and distributed the prize at the end of the occasion

Outcome

Our efforts bore fruit as we witnessed the joy and gratitude in the eyes of children. The students were enjoyed the event and sports. And giving them a lots of prize, that make them a over happiness, they ate the Pongal with lots of joy

Learnings

Through this experience, we learned and understood to accept the opportunity to start a fresh in life by discarding the old things and embracing new ones. The celebration which gathers all is a Pongal

Conclusion

Our visit to Aalampatti was not only a memorable experience, through the celebration of Pongal festival, students can learn valuable lessons about respect, gratitude, and sustainability, all of which are essential for creating a better world. We hope that the students can remember the importance of Pongal and they enjoyed well

Aim:

To conduct a special event in the light of Pongal celebration.

Objective:

- To promote people solidarity and unity.
- To encourage the people to participate in social events.

Activities:

Today our team members along with the members of others teams of II M.A. English, visited the area of Pillaimanagar at 8.00am. We organized a special event in the light of Pongal celebration where we cooked sweet Pongal for the people of the area and distributed them. We also organized competitions for primary school children of that area and distributed Pongal to the pre-school kids.

Problems:

The problems that we have sorted out during this survey are as follows:

1. The people are unwilling to participate in social gatherings.
2. The people of the area have accustomed themselves to lie in their comfort zone.
3. The people lack basic awareness on solidarity and unity.

Expected Outcome:

As per the plan, we successfully celebrated Pongal with the people and the kids of that area which has ignited a connection with the people and this will help the people participate enthusiastically in the future events.

Conclusion:

We conclude that this visit gives us a lot of hope about the future events and the people's participation in them. The people of the area are ready to mingle with us and take part towards development. We plan to bring awareness and help the people live under better environmental conditions in the future visits.
