SEMINAR OVERVIEW

Missing the forest while looking for trees is not something new for us humans. We prefer to have limits, and borders and operate within frames, though unaware of these frames of reference. Philosophy gets often entrapped into sectarian worldviews and gets entangled with national and territorial boundaries and schools of thoughts, setting out of sight various other thoughts and ideas. Philosophy needs to free itself from euro-centrism, religious fundamentalism, colonialism, imperialism, globalization, racism, casteism, and sexism are unacceptable to it, as these fail to reach out and discover a bigger space of reference and understanding.

Becoming aware of these, this seminar seeks to look for meaning beyond the 'set boundaries' and strives to transcend limiting boundaries by identifying the peripheries, and paying close attention to what they have to say.

The existential struggles for space of these need to come to light: The Dalits and the Tribals, women and children, orphaned and the abandoned elderly, immigrants, refugees, migrant workers, linguistic and religious minorities, the historiography of the subalterns, the ideologically different, LGBTQ, dissenters, atheists, critics of philosophical boundaries, post-moderns, anti-dominant critics, those who negate negation, those who depart and divert from any totalizing agencies, etc.

Dear Dr. Mariasusai Arockiasamy Xavier,

With this letter, we invite you to participate in a Workshop on Jesuit Student Formation and Religious Diversity. This Workshop is organized as a result of an initiative of the Task Force on Interreligious Dialogue, Secularization and Ecumenism, of the International Association of Jesuit Universities (IAJU).

The Workshop will take place in Barcelona (Catalonia-Spain) from July 3-7, 2022. It will gather between 25 and 30 scholars from Jesuit Higher Education institutions from the Americas, Europe, Africa and Asia. Participants have been personally invited by the organizers. After the workshop you would like to visit some Universities in Barcelona, Valencia and Madrid in Spain before flying back to India by July 15, 2022.

The goal of this Workshop is to develop a network of faculty steeped in questions of Jesuit formation in different parts of the world. It seeks to learn from one another's "best practices" in adjusting student formation to the fact that it can no longer be assumed that students have grounding in Christian faith, or in any faith tradition. The project responds to the Society's four Universal Apostolic Preferences for 2019-2029, especially preferences C ("To accompany young people in the creation of a hope-filled future") and A ("To show the way to God through the Spiritual Exercises and discernment").

We are aware that you have been involved in the steering committee meetings. You would be presenting a paper, focusing on your own experiences and insights on the formation of students in your University/College in a pluralized and secular world, drawing on resources from Ignatian pedagogy. The program for the conference will include an afternoon visit to Montserrat, in addition to the presentation and discussion of the papers.

We stay at your disposal for further clarification and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Josep F. Mària SJ
