PROCEEDINGS

- The Department of Data Science organized a seminar on 'SOFT SKILLS' on 28.07.2023 from 9:30 am to 04:30 pm in the Sail Auditorium
- Participants from SJC and various colleges attended this Seminar

INAUGURATION FUNCTION

- The prayer song was sung by the students of I M.Sc. Data Science, followed by the Bible reading by Mr. Nirmal Joel, II M.Sc. Data Science
- The welcome address was delivered by Mr. Divine Regan, II M.Sc. Data Science
- The Resource Person of the first session was Dr. Alex, Controller of Examinations, St. Joseph's College Trichy, was adorned with a shawl by Dr. L. Arockiam, Head of the Department of Data Science, St. Joseph's College, Trichy

FIRST SESSION - LEADERSHIP

- During the first session, Dr. Alex emphasized the significance of leadership skills in every individual, irrespective of their roles or positions
- He stressed that leadership should not be limited to those in managerial positions but should be an essential trait for anyone seeking personal growth and professional success
- To make the session more interactive and engaging, various intellectual games viz. team-building games, problem-solving games, and communication-based activities and activities were organized
- Those activities were designed to help the participants to understand and exhibit their leadership potential in a practical setting
- One of the highlights of the session was the recognition of an outstanding participant who displayed remarkable leadership qualities during the activities
- This individual demonstrated active participation, effective teamwork, decision-making skills, and the ability to motivate others
- As a token of appreciation, a cash award was presented to that participant, reinforcing the importance of recognizing and rewarding leadership excellence

SECOND SESSION – GROUP DISCUSSION

- The second session of the seminar featured Dr. Jayapaul, Head of the Department of English at St. Joseph's College in Trichy, as the resource person
- During the session, Dr. Jayapaul highlighted how effective group discussion skills were essential in various aspects of life, including education, career, and personal development
- To make the session engaging and participative, various intellectual games and activities were organized
- One of the key highlights of the session was, a mock group discussion was organized
- Participants were divided into smaller groups, and each group was given a specific topic to discuss
- The participants engaged in a structured discussion, presenting their viewpoints, listening to others, and collectively reaching a consensus or conclusion

THIRD SESSION – EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION:

- In the third session of the seminar, Dr. John Love Joy, Dean, School of Languages and Culture, St. Joseph's College Trichy, continued to emphasize the crucial role of effective communication skills in leadership
- The session began with a brief recap of the key communication principles discussed earlier, such as active listening, empathetic communication, assertiveness, and the importance of clear and concise messaging
- To make the session engaging and interactive, Dr. John Love Joy conducted various intellectual games and activities that focused on the practical application of effective communication techniques
- One of the highlight activities of this session was a panel discussion. Participants were divided into teams; each assigned a controversial or thought-provoking topic related to leadership or current affairs. They were asked to present arguments and counter-arguments effectively while maintaining a respectful and constructive tone.

FOURTH SESSION – RESUME WRITING AND INTERVIEW SKILLS

- In the fourth session of the seminar, Dr. Francis, Associate Professor in the Department of English at St. Joseph's College Trichy, served as the resource person. The primary objective of this session was to emphasize the importance of essential soft skills for effective leadership, with a specific focus on resume writing and interview skills. Dr. Francis began by highlighting how soft skills are integral to the successful leadership. To make the session engaging and interactive, Dr. Francis incorporated various activities and games designed to improve participants' resume writing and interview abilities. These activities simulated real-life scenarios, helping attendees understand how to present themselves effectively during the job application process
- One of the key activities was a mock interview session. Participants partnered up, with one playing the role of the interviewer and the other as the interviewee. They were given a list of common interview questions and asked to conduct the mock interview professionally

After each role-play, Dr. Francis provided constructive feedback and valuable tips on enhancing interview techniques, body language, and responses

VALEDICTORY FUNCTION:

- During the Valedictory function, books worth Rs. 100, and certificates of participation were distributed to the enthusiastic participants who actively engaged in the various sessions and made the event a grand success
- A vote of thanks was delivered by Ms. Reethi, I M.Sc. Data Science

Report on Positive Psychology Session for I MBA

17th June 2023

The first-year students, who are in the initial phase of cultivating a cohesive learning environment in JIM were provided a session on “Positive Psychology” by Ms. Leema Peter who is an inspiring teacher, motivational speaker, a student facilitator and a resourceful trainer with 26 years of experience in delivering talks and sessions.

The half a day session included inputs in the area of positive mind set, positive approaches, positive parenting, positive relationship and positive self-esteem.

The students were keen to know the generation traits that they possess and how they can compete with the demands of the current trend. It was an interactive session, where students clarified their concerns about the approaches to life and its challenges.

Ms. Restina Assistant Professor introduced the guest and Mr. Sudershan I MBA A delivered the vote of thanks.
