(ii) We use a non- intrusive technology to identify collaboration, we analyse the question attempting logs to identify suspicious similarities between submitted responses. NTA also reviews candidate exam logs to identify abnormal answering behaviours and CCTV recording of such candidates is analysed to confirm malpractice with evidence.

(ii) Analyse the behaviour of students who passed their answers to other candidates as opposed to candidates who received these answers.

(iii) Use of technologies to reveal cheating behaviour, even after the exams, to reveal the cheating occurrence

(iv) Catch the likely cheaters through Artificial Intelligence based tools.

(v) We focus on cheating in the form of seeking outside help during the exam and catch hold on this by implying various technologies/tools. The examination centres are continuously being monitored through artificial enabled systems.

These are known as 'unauthorised materials'.

5(a) You are not permitted to use a dictionary or an electronic device or translator of any kind or have on or at your desk a calculator which can store or display text. You are also not permitted to use in your examination room an electronic communication device, camera, smart watch, any other item with smart technology functionality or mobile phones (unless the exam is being conducted remotely in which case it must only be used in accordance with ACCA's Exam Guidelines). 5(b) 'Unauthorised items' must not be worn, or be placed on your desk, in pockets of clothing, in your bag or personal belongings, or be kept anywhere else on or about your person or desk. They are also empowered to discontinue your exam if you are suspected of irregular or improper conduct and to remove or exclude you from the exam room.

9. If you breach exam regulation 2 and/or fail to disclose to the supervisor(s), invigilator(s), remote invigilator(s) or proctor(s), any 'unauthorised materials' or 'unauthorised items' which they reasonably suspect you have in your possession, it will be assumed the 'unauthorised materials' are relevant to the syllabus being examined and that you intended to use the 'unauthorised materials' and/or 'unauthorised items' to gain an unfair advantage.

16. For Session Exams only you must not leave the room where you are sitting your exam early, i.e. before the time limit allocated for the exam expires, and you must remain under invigilator/proctor supervision for the entire exam duration. For the avoidance of doubt, this also applies before the exam has started if you have been seated at your designated computer workstation (applicable to centre-based exams only) or after you have verified your identity and room set up and successfully checked in for the exam (applicable for Remote Invigilated Exams only).
