(a) Percentile Scores are normalised scores across multi session papers and are based on the relative performance of all those who appeared for the examination in this subject. The marks obtained are transformed into a scale ranging from 100 to 0 for each session of examinees.

(b) The Percentile Score indicates the percentage of candidates who have scored EQUAL TO OR BELOW (same or lower raw scores) that particular candidate in that session.

(c) The Percentile scores of a Candidate have been calculated as follows:

100 X Number of candidates appeared in the 'Session' with raw score EQUAL TO OR LESS than the candidate Total number of the candidates appeared in the 'Session'

(d) The Percentile Score of the Total is NOT an aggregate or average of the Percentile Score of individual papers.

(e) Percentile score is not the same as percentage of marks obtained.

What next?

No matter what your results, the key to ACCA is to keep going. Whether you're looking to do a retake after a failure, or your confidence is high after a pass - the best way to ensure you continue progressing is to always have your next exam booked. This keeps you focused on the next stage, and gives you something to work for.

Notes

If an exam attempt is suspended, cancelled or otherwise nullified by the examining board (at any stage, whether before or after the examination sitting itself) ACCA will waive the fee (or part thereof) for the next attempt at the exam(s) unless such suspension, cancellation or otherwise is caused by an epidemic, pandemic or other event against which ACCA is unable to obtain insurance on reasonable commercial terms. Due to the nature and complexity of operating professional exams, ACCA reserves the right not to reschedule any exam or offer any compensation other than as specified above.

For computer based exams only: All computer-based exams will include an additional 10 minutes, which commences from the start time stated above, for the candidate to read the exam instructions and summary screens. Once you have completed reading the information and instructions, your exam duration time will start.
